Walls tell stories

Q1. Using the clues below guess the word.

a) A subject in which we study about past. H

b) A part of the wall coming out in a round shape. It is built to ensure security. B

c) A group of soldiers. A

d) A single of this can cause a lot of destruction. B

e) A place where old items are kept. M

Q2. Look at the picture and fill in the blanks with the correct directions.

(1) When we stand facing the rising Sun, we are looking towards _____.

(2) Behind us is the _____ where the Sun sets.

(3) On the left hand side is the _____.

(4) The right hand points to the _____ .

Q3. Choose the correct answer.

a) Where is the Golconda fort located?

i) Delhi
ii) Mumbai
iii) Hyderabad
iv) Kolkata

b) What was the function of the sharp iron spokes on the gate?

i) One could climb the gate in case of emergency.
ii) They made the gate look beautiful.
iii) They made gate stick to the walls.
iv) Elephants of the enemy hurt themselves if they tried to open it by butting their heads on it.

c) Why were the bastions made in the fort wall?

i) To make the fort look beautiful.
ii) To keep an eye on the movement of the enemy at a distance and in different directions.
iii) For the king to rest while taking a round of the fort.
iv) They acted as the servant quarters.

d) Why were big holes made in the bastions?

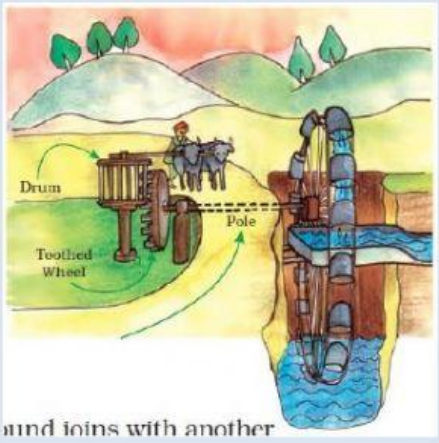
i) To attack the enemy without being seen

ii) To get fresh air.

iii) To escape through them.

iv) For the king to enjoy the scenery around the fort.

e) What is the use of toothed wheel in the picture?



and joins with another

i) To make the work of the bullocks easier.

ii) To increase the speed of water pulling.

iii) To change the direction of movement.

iv) To pull the water to greater height.