My name is Sam, and I study at college. I rent a flat together with another student. I am not an extremely tidy person and I hate housework, but we are expecting a visit from my flatmate's Grandma. So, on Saturday my flatmate Bob and I decided to give our flat a really good clean. First, we tidied up the bedroom and the living room, which wasn't an easy thing to do. Then we emptied the rubbish. I also collected all my dirty socks from under the bed and washed them. Next, I dusted the furniture and vacuumed the carpets, and Bob mopped the floors. After that, I scrubbed the sink and the cooker while Bob cleaned the windows. By 12 o'clock the whole flat looked really neat and orderly. We were awfully tired, but there were still lots of things to do. After a short rest, Bob headed for the supermarket and did some grocery shopping, and I started cooking something to eat. At dinner we rewarded ourselves with a big piece of chocolate cake for all our hard work. We were so exhausted that after dinner we just crashed out :o)
