LANGUAGE PRACTICE: MODAL VERBS

MULTIPLE CHOICE:

1) It`s not necessary for us to go to school tomorrow.

   a) We don' have to go to school tomorrow.

   b) We mustn't go to school tomorrow.

   c) We cannot go to school tomorrow.

   d) We needn't have gone to school tomorrow.

   _____

2) I wouldn`t go out with this rain, if I were you.

   a) You shouldn't stay with this rain.

   b) You should have stayed with this rain.

   c) You ought to stay with this rain.

   d) You ought not have been out with this rain.

   _____

3) Perhaps Ann didn't see you.

   a) Ann can't have seen you.

   b) Ann might have seen you.

   c) Ann might haven't seen you.

   d) Ann might not have seen you.

   _____

4) Emma was wrong not to help you with your work.

   a) Emma should help you with your homework.

   b) Emma should have help you with your homework.

c) Emma should to help you with your homework.

d) Emma should have helped you with your homework.

_____

5) I`m afraid your teacher is unable to come today.

   a) Your teacher will be able to come today

   b) Your teacher will not come today

   c) Your teacher cannot come today

   d) Your teacher can't be able to come today

_____

6) It wasn`t necessary to work that hard, but she did it anyway.

   a) She didn't need to work that hard.

   b) She needn't have worked that hard.

   c) She needn't have to work that hard.

   d) She needn't work that hard.

_____

7) I`m sure That Diana didn`t take the books.

   a) Diana can't have taken the books.

   b) Diana mustn't have taken the books

   c) Diana can't had taken the books

   d) Diana must have taken the books

_____

8) It would have been a good idea to tell me.

   a) You should tell me.

   b) You must have tell me.

c) You should have told me.

d) You must have told me.

---

9) I`m sure you always work very hard.

    a) You can work very hard.

    b) You must work very hard.

    c) You will work very hard.

    d) You may work very hard.

---

10) It was possible that they came late.

    a) They may come late.

    b) They may had come late.

    c) They might come late.

    d) They might have come late.