

Flowers

Match the flowers with their description and write their names.

1 It grows in gardens. It has beautiful red flowers and green leaves. You can see it in Russia and in many other countries. It can be white, yellow, pink, purple and even black.

2 It grows in rain forests. It has green leaves and big flowers. It can eat insects. There are 18 species of these plants in Russia.

3 It grows in lakes and ponds. It has large triangular green leaves and white flowers.

4 It grows in fields and gardens. It has a large yellow flower head with black seeds in the middle. You can find it in Russia, America and other countries. You can make oil from it.

