

Passive Voice

TENSE	ACTIVE	PASSIVE	TENSE	ACTIVE	PASSIVE
Present Simple	I do my homework.	My homework is done.	Past Perfect	I had done my homework.	My homework had been done.
Present Continuous	I 'm doing my homework.	My homework is being done.	Future Simple	I will do my homework.	My homework will be done.
Past Simple	I did my homework.	My homework was done.	Future Be going to	I 'm going to do my homework.	My homework is going to be done.
Past Continuous	I was doing my homework.	My homework was being done.	Modal	I must do my homework.	My homework must be done.
Present Perfect	I have done my homework.	My homework has been done.	Modal Perfect	I should have done my homework.	My homework should have been done.

ESL.COM

A) Use the verbs in brackets to complete the Passive Voice in these sentences. Use the tenses in blue.

1. After laughing in class, Paul(send) to the headmistress office.
(Past tense)
2. Before Jim Carrey, Steve Martin(tell) to star the movie "The Mask"
(Past Perfect tense)
3. Stand up shows.....(not pay) accordingly lately. (Present Perfect tense)
4. Comedians(say) to be the saddest people inside. (Present tense)
5. All Robin Williams comedies(remember) by many spectators. (Future tense)
6. Great recognition must.....(give) to the greatest sitcom of all times; "Friends."
(Modal)

B) Rewrite these sentences into Passive voice. Make all the necessary changes.

We are selling tickets for all shows at the Box Office.

Several people saw the clowns show.

Where do they make these funny spots?

More than 200 people have attended the premiere.

Will Adam Sandler star the last comedy of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios?
