

THE STONE OF SCONE REVIEW

WRITE YES/NO NEXT TO THE ANSWERS FOR THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. What was the Stone of destiny according to the legends?

It was the same stone which Jacob used as a pillow at Bethel.

It was said to roar in joy when the rightful king of Scotland put his feet on it.

It was found in the deepest part of a sacred mountain.

2. Why was it so important for the Scottish people?

The Stone of Destiny was considered to have magical powers.

The Stone of Destiny has played a central role in the coronation of Scottish kings.

3. When and why did Edward steal it?

King Edward I ("Hammer of the Scots") stole it after his Scottish victories in 1296.

He took it to Westminster Abbey in London to be placed under the coronation chair.

It was a symbol of domain over the Scottish.

4. Where is this stone now days?

It is still in England.

In 1996 the Stone was taken back to Scotland.

It can be seen at Edinburgh Castle.

5. Which of the following is the Stone of Destiny?

.....