

IDIOMS RELATED TO TIME

PART 1: MATCH THE TWO PARTS

1. In the long run,

2. That was a blast from the past!

3. I'm a bit pressed for time today.

4. We've got time to kill.

5. You're just in time.

6. Sorry I'm late.

7. I only go to the cinema once in a blue moon.

8. Let's leave it there for the time being.

a. The movie starts in 2 minutes.

b. We're ready, and she isn't arriving until 5.

c. I haven't seen her since high school.

d. We can put it away later.

e. it's cheaper to buy quality products.

f. Once or twice a year at the most.

g. I lost track of time.

h. Could we meet tomorrow instead?

PART 2: MATCH THE TWO PARTS

9. Let's call it a day.

10. Take your time.

11. I finally got my driver's licence.

12. I couldn't finish the exam.

13. Is it really a year since I arrived in Australia?

14. Don't forget to clock on before work.

15. I'm a bit behind the times.

16. I get paid time and a half...

i. There's no hurry.

l. I ran out of time.

j. Time flies.

k. It's about time! You're 35.

m. if I work on Saturdays.

n. I don't have a smart phone.

o. Otherwise, you won't get paid.

p. I'm tired!