

SOCIAL STUDIES

HOLIDAYS- DIVALI

Elegant Diwali Diyas Purple by HolidayBug

Zazzle

Facts about Divali

- Divali 2020 in Trinidad and Tobago will be celebrated on Saturday 14th November.
- It is celebrated in the Hindu month called Kartik; which is between our months of October and November.
- Divali lasts for 5 days. The last day is the The Festival of Lights, which takes place on the darkest night (the first night of the new moon) in the month of Kartik.
- Divali was brought to Trinidad and Tobago by Hindus who came as indentured labourers in 1845.
- The celebration of Divali in Trinidad and Tobago is a national holiday with many functions held to celebrate the occasion.
- Divali was first made a public holiday in 1966.

Bamboo Hanging

Indian Sweets

Indian Foods