Catching a Big Fish – VOCABULARY

Fill an appropriate word into the gap. The first letter is given. MIND YOUR SPELLING

(1) The saddest case the police had to solve was the m..... in which a young woman was killed.

(2) Everybody should have a good friend to t..... They are always there for you and help you whenever you need them.

(3) Don't h..... to ask me if you need help.

(4) Please r..... me to take my English book home. I need it to prepare for the test. I'll forget it if you don't tell me.

(5) My two little brothers always g..... when they have to tidy up their rooms! They don't want to do it and even ask me to help them!

(6) He o..... took a wrong turn when he came to visit us last weekend. Therefore he got lost and was half an hour late.

(7) Now I am c..... Is he your brother or your cousin?

(8) On our last holidays we went to a small c..... close to our hotel. There was a nice, sandy beach and the water was just perfect.

(9) When they police arrest criminals, they normally put h..... on them. That means that they can't move their hands because they are tied up.

(10) What would you say is the most important and most useful e..... for students? – Well, they need paper to write on and a pen or pencil to write with.

(11) Another word for "to suppose" is to a.....

(12) Pst! The baby is sleeping. We can't talk loudly, we only can w.....

(13) Can you p..... that your neighbour took some apples from your tree? Did you see him?

(14) No more time left = to r..... (4 words)

(15) I really like my best friend, but he is a little bit i..... He can't wait till it's his turn. Sometimes he really gets on my nerves.

(16) You really have to wear your s..... (2 words) when you go by car. No matter if you are the driver or if you sit in the back.

liveworksheets.com

(17) It was a real c..... to meet our friends in town yesterday. It was not planned at all.

(18) I really a..... your help! I could not have answered any of these questions without you.

(19) There was a huge c..... at the football match last Sunday. I have never seen so many people!

(20) Some students think that learning vocabulary is a w..... (3 words). However, some of them think that the more words you know the better your English will get.

(21) The police are currently working on a new c..... Somebody has kidnapped a millionaire. The kidnappers have already called the police to tell them about their d..... - they want €500,000 r..... money!

(22) Don't be so u.....! I didn't mean to break your favourite pencil, but it happened.

(23) The police are investigating a t..... Somebody broke into the shop and stole quite some money.

(24) Before the police can solve a case, they have to collect all the e.....

(25) The police try to a..... the bad people: thieves, kidnappers and murderers. That means those people have to go to prison.

(26) The police always q..... suspects and witnesses if they work on a case.

(27) Mr Miller is i..... (2 words) of the marketing department. That means he is the boss.

(28) Have you heard from Susan r.....? – No, not really. The last time I talked to her was weeks ago.

(29) Sammy, my best friend, was d..... as a girl and nobody recognised him. He wore a dress and a wig with long, blond hair.

(30) The parents were really c..... when the children did not come home on time. Luckily nothing happened to them – the bus was late.

(31) Another word for "to assume" = to s.....

(32) A lot of visitors a..... the beautiful paintings in the museum.

(33) The police sometimes have to b..... offices or houses because they need to hear what the people inside are talking about.

liveworksheets.com