Every weekend I go out with my friends. We go to concerts or to pubs. We love music, especially dance music. Concert tickets are more expensive than going to pubs but we enjoy live music very much. Our favourite singer is Beyoncé. She's really cool! She has got lots of great songs and her concerts are the best ones!

Last weekend I couldn't go out with my friends because I had a lot of homework. I was studying very hard when my brother arrived home with three friends. It was a beautiful sunny day and they were playing a very noisy game, so I decided to do my homework in the park.

I found a quiet place and sat down. I was writing the first sentence of my English composition when an old lady sat down next to me. She opened a plastic bag and started to throw bread on the ground. Suddenly there were about thirty birds around us. They were very noisy so I stopped writing and put my pen and notebook on the ground. I was watching the birds and thinking about my homework when a boy ran over my pen and broke it. I didn't have another pen so I had to go home to write my composition.
