

MAKE UP QUESTIONS TO THE UNDERLINED WORDS.
If no verb is underlined, make up a yes-no question

1. Anne was standing by the window.
2. My little brother often reads detective stories.
3. They have already finished their work.
4. The students will visit their teacher next week.
5. The old lady saw a postman at the gate.
6. The three little men beat the poor farmer some days ago.
7. The Browns were drinking tea when the doorbell rang.
8. The firemen hurried to the schoolhouse.
9. We were at home yesterday.
10. The cat climbed the tree.
11. Tom's father bought this house some years ago.
12. The owner of the house cut three trees down.
13. I was absent from class yesterday.
14. My deskmate borrowed my pen some days ago.
15. They have opened their books already.
16. I studied hard for the test.
17. Karen swam across the river.