10 common food idioms

Join idioms with their meaning:

not my cup of tea

in a nutshell

to butter someone up

as cool as a cucumber

a bad egg

cheesy

don't put all your eggs in one basket the apple of my eye take something with a pinch of salt have your cake and eat it without style

to spread your risks to love and adore someone to be especially nice to someone to not automatically believe something you can't always have everything to be very relaxed and calm in a particular situation basically, to summarise something is not to your taste someone who is often in trouble and is not to be trusted liveworksheets.com