

Phrasal verbs

When we got to the hotel we went to the  reception to CHECK IN.

to arrive at a destination

Paolo decided he really needed to GET AWAY to somewhere hot where he could rest and relax.

to leave the ground

The plane is supposed to GET IN at about 10.00.

to pay and leave accommodation

Dr Lee SET OFF from his house around 6.00 this morning in order to catch his flight.

to stay somewhere for a short time when you are going somewhere else

When we fly to Japan we usually STOP OVER in Delhi.

to arrange for someone to stay in (a hotel)

When the family went to the travel agency, the travel agent BOOKED them INTO a hotel on the coast for two weeks.

to go on holiday

All hotel guests must CHECK OUT by midday.

to register at your accommodation

Please go to Gate 14 as the plane to Lisbon is due to TAKE OFF in about 30 minutes.

to begin a journey

