

Prepositions of location

across at in into off

on

The hotel had a swimming pool its roof.

I arrived the airport very early in the morning.

When I walked the hotel I was amazed by the decoration.

I arrived Spain last Tuesday.

We showed our passports as we went the frontier.

I found a bank the town centre.

We sat the terrace drinking coffee.

There was a notice the wall telling us about trips.

I jumped the pool to cool off.

Singapore is an island the coast of Malaysia.

