- b- Not many people in the world like the Premier Ligue.....
- c- The Premier Ligue started 30 years ago.....
- d- Manchester were the second champions.....
- e- Ryan Giggs didn't play for Manchester.....
- f- The tickets at Old Trafford are cheap.....

Football (or soccer) is the most popular sport in the UK. The world's first football clubs were English and today more people watch the English Premier League than any other league in the world. The Premier League started in 1992. The first champions were Manchester United. They are also the most successful team, with the most Premier League wins. Ryan Giggs played 632 times for Manchester United in the Premier League. That's a record!

Manchester United play at Old Trafford. The stadium has got more than 75,000 seats. It is the biggest club stadium in England. The atmosphere in the stadium is brilliant - but the tickets aren't cheap!

- g- Football is more popular than Baseball in the U.S.A.....
- h- People don't watch baseball in Japan or Cuba.....
- i- The Yankee Stadium is a very small place.....
- j- Derek didn't play for Yankee Stars.....

Baseball is one of the oldest and best loved American team sports. It is very popular in the USA, but also in other countries around the world, for example, Japan and Cuba. The New York Yankees are the most famous and most successful American baseball team. They play at Yankee Stadium. More than 50,000 people can watch a baseball game there - and not all the tickets are very expensive.

Derek Jeter was one of the biggest Yankee stars. He played more than 2,700 games for the Yankees in his career.
