

Medical Emergencies

Read the story of Isabella's trip to the emergency room.

Choose a verb from the box and complete the text with the past form. There are regular and irregular verbs.

| | | | | | | |
|--------|---------|-------|---------|------------|------|------|
| ask x2 | be | break | call x2 | examine x2 | fall | |
| | feel | give | go | help | put | stay |
| | take x3 | | tell | wait x2 | | want |

There are two examples:

Last year, I broke my hand. I _____ at the dentist's office. I called my son and _____ him the bad news. He _____ me to the emergency room of Jefferson Hospital. He _____ me to fill out the forms and _____ with me and my husband for one hour. Then he _____ back to his job. My husband and I _____ there to wait for a doctor. I _____ nervous about my English. We _____ for the doctor for a very long time. Finally, the nurse _____ me to a big room. There _____ many patients. He _____ my blood pressure and _____ me Tylenol, and _____ me something. The doctor _____ my hand and _____ an x-ray. My hand was swollen and I could not move it. I _____ to tell the doctor, but my English was not good. He _____ me something but I did not understand. Then they _____ my hand and they _____ on the cast.

