Read the texts about "Some differences between the USA and Ecuador" and answer the followings items.

1.- Read the text and write the right word on the line, using the phrases in the box according reading.

a) Ecuador	b) fun	c) United States	d) sports

When you see a typical American teen movie, competitions are often involved! Actually, idioms like, "Go big or go home!" or "Give it your all!" reflect the way people in the _____ perceive what being competitive means. This includes many parts of life: _____, school, work, even video games.

Teens in _____ may be competitive as well, but usually they don't take it too seriously because it's just for _____. They can enjoy sports, school, or video games and appreciate healthy competition. The emphasis is more on having fun in the process, and not who wins or loses... except maybe in soccer!

2.- Choose to complete the phrases with right answer about Interculturality.

- How competitive are people in the United States?
  - a. In many aspects of job
  - b. In few aspects of life
  - c. In many aspects of life

- People in the United States are taught…
  - a. how to sing when they are young children
  - b. how to compete when they are older than brothers.
  - c. how to compete when they are young children

- This competitiveness often continues when…
  - a. they are tourists in foreign.
  - b. they are married in many parts of the lives.
  - c. they are adults in many parts of the lives.

3.- Match the questions with right answer according reading.

a) According to the reading, are teens in the USA and Ecuador equally competitive?

1.- Yes, they are. Teens in Ecuador may be competitive as well, but usually they don't take it too seriously as in USA.

b) What does a typical American teen movie usually involve?

2.- The competitions are often involved!

c) Do you consider yourself a competitive person? Do you think being competitive have positive or 3.- Yes, I do. I think being competitive, I have positive effects on people.