

IRREGULAR VERBS

Write the base form of each irregular verb. Write it without "to".

Sally left [redacted] home when she was [redacted] 18. She didn't want to go to university, so she went [redacted] to work in a book shop in London.

One day, a customer came [redacted] to the store. His name was [redacted] Bill, and he was tall and handsome. He liked [redacted] Sally, and asked her out. They went out to dinner and had [redacted] a nice time. Bill told [redacted] Sally that he worked [redacted] in a bank in the financial district. Sally liked Bill, too. After dinner, they kissed [redacted] in front of her door. She smiled and said [redacted] that she hoped she would see him again.

Nobody is sure how it happened, but Sally and Bill fell [redacted] hopelessly in love, and ended up getting married. They moved into a small flat together and paid [redacted] incredibly high rent prices for a few years, until Sally announced that she was pregnant. Bill asked for a loan from the bank so they could [redacted] buy a nicer flat in a friendlier neighborhood outside London. A few months later she had her baby. They named [redacted] the baby Andrea.