Source:	Master	Skills Reading	Comprehensi	on

Name:
11011101

COMPRESS SARRY C

Comprehension and Context

Comprehension is understanding what is seen, heard or read.

Context is the rest of the words in a sentence or the sentences before or after a word. Context can help with comprehension.

bololo of allor a word, con	ioni carricip mili compicito	STIGIOTI.
Context clues help you figure it to other words in the sente	out the meaning of a word bence.	by relating
Directions: Use the context meanings of the bold words	clues in the sentences to find s.	I the <ol> <li>Jane was a wizard at gar no time and seldom lost.</li> </ol>	nes. She mastered them in evil magician	gifted person	average player
The holiday was so special be imprinted forever on h		er forget it. The memory would found	weighed	fixed
3. "John will believe anything impressionable young mo	g anyone tells him," his teach an."	er said."He's a very
asily influenced	unhappy	unintelligent
Do you really think it's promother asked crossly.	udent to spend all your mone	y on clothes?" his foolish	wise	☐ funny
5. "Your plan has merit ," Eliza	beth's father said. "Let me gi	ve it some thought."
value	awards	kindness
6. John was very gregarious	and loved being around pe	ople.
shy	outgoing	unfriendly