

Imperative Sentences & Exclamatory Sentences

Name: _____

Date: _____

Section A: Breakfast at the Shoal Restaurant

Circle the letter next to the answer that names the type of sentence.

What kind of sentence? 1. Bahamian dishes are so delicious a) exclamatory b) imperative 	What kind of sentence? 2. Avoid using too much of that pepper sauce a) exclamatory b) imperative
What kind of sentence? 3. You must try the boiled fish a) exclamatory b) imperative 	What kind of sentence? 4. Enjoy your daiquiris a) exclamatory b) imperative

Section B: Election Day

Instructions: Read the passage. Place the correct punctuation mark in the box at the end of each sentence to tell the sentence type.

5. Lenamae turns eighteen this year and she is very excited to vote in the general election__6. This will be a remarkable experience for her __ As she enters the voting halls she is given a set of instructions by the presiding officer. 7. Please present your identification card __ 8. Mark an X besides the name of your choice __ 9. Fold the ballot and place it into the ballot box __ 10. What an experience__

