

Singular and Plural Nouns.

One of the nouns in BOLD should be plural. Write the plural of the noun in the space.

Remember to use capital letters if they are needed.

Remember: For the plural of nouns ending in s, ss, x, ch or sh by adding -es. Form the plural of verbs ending with a consonant and y by changing the y to l and adding -es.

Example: The Arctic is a cold region stretching across three continent. continents

1. The northern border of Europe, Asia and North America form this land. _____
2. A traveller can visit many community. _____
3. Winter month are dark in this cold place. _____
4. Bright green patch cover the ground. _____
5. The southern Arctic is an area with many different grass. _____
6. Small bush, no taller than a bicycle, are common. _____
7. Some valley are filled with plant life. _____
8. During warm weather, even berry ripen. _____
9. Oil company pump oil from the frozen ground. _____
10. This natural resource attracts explorer to the Arctic. _____