

At the beach Fluency

Reading

U8: The robot

By: Miss Ash

Last week, my classmates and I went to the beach. We went there in a bus.

Once we got down, all of us rushed to the ice cream stall. It was so cooling and delicious.

Some of us changed into swimming attires and went to swim. My friends and I started building sandcastles at the beach. My teacher walked around and took photos of us.

It was such an amazing trip.
