Hi!

My name's Inga and I live in a town called Brickton. I like my town very much. It's not very big but there are lots of attractions for young people. For example, there are many good cafés, a new stadium and a fantastic restaurant with really good pizza. There aren't any supermarkets but there is a big music store on Long Street. You can spend many hours there and listen to CDs. My sister is 18 and she's a shop assistant there. I love music. There are many CDs I like at the shop but I can't buy them all because they're expensive.
