

71 Use Adverbs That Tell Where

- Use an adverb to describe a verb. Adverbs bring life to your writing.
- Some adverbs tell where something happens.
“Look outside,” I said.
Snow fell everywhere.

Try It

A. Complete each sentence. Use an adverb from the box.

around	down	everywhere	inside	outside	somewhere
--------	------	------------	--------	---------	-----------

1. I stood _____.
2. Snow fell _____.
3. A snowplow worked _____, but I did not see it.
4. “Look _____, Grandpa,” I said. “Everything is white.”
5. “The plows piled snow _____.”
6. Even more snow came _____ that night.

there	outside
around	far
down	here

B. Complete each sentence. Use an adverb that tells where.

7. We went _____ the next morning.
8. Grandpa called, “Come _____, Raul.”
9. “Let’s dig _____. We can measure the snow.”
10. Later we took a walk, but we did not go _____.
11. We looked _____ at all the snowy trees.
12. “Look _____! Someone made a snowman,” I said.