

Do you _____ anxious in a yellow room? Does the _____ blue make you feel calm and relaxed? Does the color red _____ you passionate or angry? Artists and _____ designers have long believed that color can dramatically _____ moods, feelings, and emotions. "Colors, like features, follow the changes of the emotions," the _____ Pablo Picasso once remarked.

Color is a _____ communication tool and can be used to signal action, influence _____ and even influence physiological reactions. Certain colors have been _____ with increased blood pressure, increased metabolism, and eyestrain. So how exactly does color work? How is color _____ to impact mood and behavior?

affect

artist

associated

believed

color

feel

interior

make

mood

powerful