A Listen and match.

1. Dinosaurs appeared
2. Dinosaurs dominated the terrestrial vertebrates
3. Birds survived the Cretaceous-Paleogene extinction
4. Birds represent
5. Paleontologists have identified
6. Researchers found that all dinosaurs were active animals with elevated metabolisms
7. The largest sauropod dinosaurs were
8. The first dinosaurs fossils were recognized

a. over 10,000 living species
b. 66 million years ago
c. in the early 19th century
d. 39.7 meters long and 18 meters tall
e. since the 1970's
f. 201 million years ago
g. between 243 and 233.23 millions years ago
h. 1,000 different species of non-avian dinosaurs

B Complete the questions about Dinosaurs. Use the past simple and the verbs in brackets.

1. When Dinosaurs (become) the dominant terrestrial vertebrates?
2. their dominance (continue) through the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods?
3. Before scientific (recognize) birds as dinosaurs, what they (believe)?
4. many extinct groups (include) tripedal species?
5. What skeletal modifications some groups (develop)?

interayari.blogspot.com

C Listen again and answer the questions in exercise B.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

D What's your favorite dinosaur? Look for information and then write a short article about it.

MP3 file was created with text-to-speech from a wikipedia.org excerpt and the images are from Pixabay.com both under a Creative Commons license.