

Project 4: REVISION unit 1, p. 18

p. 18/ ex. 1

One wet afternoon in September, Will Mackintosh 1. _____ (sit) in his room. He 2. _____ (study) for a test. His parents 3. _____ (be) at work and his sister, Becky, 4. _____ (be) at school.

He 5. _____ (be) hungry, but it 6. _____ (rain) heavily, so he 7. _____ (not want) to go to the shops. He 8. _____ (decide) to cook some chips.

He 9. _____ (put) some oil in a saucepan on the cooker and 10. _____ (light) the gas. The telephone 11. _____ (ring), so Will 12. _____ (go) to answer it.

While he 13. _____ (talk) on the phone, the oil suddenly 14. _____ (catch) fire. When Will 15. _____ (smell) the smoke, he 16. _____ (run) back to the kitchen. But as he 17. _____ (go) into the kitchen he 18. _____ (trip) on the leg of a chair and 19. _____ (hit) his head on a cupboard...

What do you think happened next? Write down your ideas.

p. 18/ ex. 2

Make sentences with used to and didn't use to:

1. Oliver plays ice hockey now.
2. He doesn't play football now.
3. They live in a big house now.
4. They don't live in a flat any longer.
5. Oliver doesn't go cycling with his friends now.

6. He goes horse riding instead.
7. He doesn't wear a green school uniform now.

8. Now he goes to school in jeans.

p. 18 / ex. 4 a)

Put the dialogue in the correct order.

Next to the jackets? Thanks. _____

Excuse me. Can I try these jeans on, please? _____

They aren't big enough. Have you got them in a larger size? _____

Yes, these are fine. I'll take them. _____

Yes, the changing rooms are over there, next to the jackets. _____

How are they? _____

Yes, here you are. Try these. _____

Are they better? _____

p. 18 / ex. 4 b)

Dialogue 1

Dialogue 2

Dialogue 3

Dialogue 4