1. Match.

Communicate, surf, install, download, unplug, delete, press, connect, type, charge

	• It stores electricity............................
	• To remove something........................
	• To join something to the main supply ....
	• To exchange information or conversation with other people ....
	• To disconnect something by pulling its plug out of the socket ....
	• To look quickly for information on the Internet ....
	• To add new software to a computer so it can be used ....
	• To push a button ....
•	• To write using a keyboard (computer or typewriter) ....
•	• That's how you get files from the Internet to your computer ....