Instituto Universitario de Caldas

Personal pronouns and Simple present verb to be

1. Listen to the audio and complete the sentence with the right personal pronoun.

A) _____ _____ a writer.
B) _____ _____ mad?
C) _____ _____ my CD.
D) _____ _____ late.
E) _____ _____ good people.
F) _____ _____ tired of my work.
G) _____ _____ a teacher.
G) _____ _____ too large.
H) _____ _____ a nice day.
I) _____ _____ from France.
J) _____ _____ kind.
K) _____ _____ a good cook.
L) _____ _____ friends?
M) _____ _____ not tall.
N) _____ _____ Monday.
O) _____ _____ free?
P) _____ _____ beautiful.
Q) _____ _____ men.
R) _____ _____ his sons.
S) _____ _____ happy.

2. Fill in the blanks by choosing am, is or are

A) They _____ my good friends.
B) He _____ a soldier.
C) You _____ taller than Charlie.
D) She _____ ill.
E) We _____ very hungry.
F) It _____ a sunny day.
G) I _____ angry with Joe.
H) You _____ all welcome to my house.

3. Choose the right form of the verb.

A) John's dog _____ very friendly.
B) Robert _____ ten years old.
C) These flowers _____ very pretty.
D) The two schools _____ close to each other.
E) Math _____ not a very difficult subject.
F) This computer _____ very easy to use.
G) All the windows _____ open.
H) Sue and Jane _____ neighbors.
I) His hair _____ curly.
J) The school team _____ the best.

4. Complete the text using the correct form of the verb to be.

Good Morning, I _____ Susan Myers, I _____ a reporter at Central News and today I _____ making a report on immigrants, today´s guests _____ two immigrants from China, they _____ Jane lee, and Peter Lee, they _____ Students at the community college, she _____ 19 years old and he _____ 20. They _____ students but they _____ not workers. They live in an apartment downtown.

Susan: _____ you happy in America?

Dorothy: Yes, we _____, we enjoy living here.

Susan: Thank you very much.

They _____ two Chinese people living the American Dream, this _____ Susan Myers reporting from the Community College, and tomorrow we will have more guests in "living in America", see you then!

liveworksheets.com