

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

Personal pronouns and Simple present verb to be

1. Listen to the audio and complete the sentence with the right personal pronoun.

A) _____ a writer.

J) _____ kind.

B) _____ mad?

K) _____ a good cook.

C) _____ my CD.

L) _____ friends?

D) _____ late.

M) _____ not tall.

E) _____ good people.

N) _____ Monday.

F) _____ tired of my work.

O) _____ free?

G) _____ a teacher.

P) _____ beautiful.

G) _____ too large.

Q) _____ men.

H) _____ a nice day.

R) _____ his sons.

I) _____ from France.

S) _____ happy.

2. Fill in the blanks by choosing am, is or are

A) They _____ my good friends.

E) We _____ very hungry.

B) He _____ a soldier.

F) It _____ a sunny day.

C) You _____ taller than Charlie.

G) I _____ angry with Joe.

D) She _____ ill.

H) You _____ all welcome to my house.

3. Choose the right form of the verb.

A) John's dog _____ very friendly.

F) This computer _____ very easy to use.

B) Robert _____ ten years old.

G) All the windows _____ open.

C) These flowers _____ very pretty.

H) Sue and Jane _____ neighbors.

D) The two schools _____ close to each other.

I) His hair _____ curly.

E) Math _____ not a very difficult subject.

J) The school team _____ the best.

4. Complete the text using the correct form of the verb to be.

Good Morning, I _____ Susan Myers, I _____ a reporter at Central News and today I _____ making a report on immigrants, today's guests _____ two immigrants from China, they _____ Jane Lee, and Peter Lee, they _____ Students at the community college, she _____ 19 years old and he _____ 20. They _____ students but they _____ not workers. They live in an apartment downtown.

Susan: _____ you happy in America?

Dorothy: Yes, we _____, we enjoy living here.

Susan: Thank you very much.

They _____ two Chinese people living the American Dream, this _____ Susan Myers reporting from the Community College, and tomorrow we will have more guests in "living in America", see you then!