

AIR TRAVEL vocabulary - complete

jet leg – domestic – connecting – customs – immigration – book – in-flight – declare – baggage claim – departure lounge – allowance – tag – fasten – layover – economy class – aisle – arrival and departure – window – bumpy/turbulent – disembark – pass

Don't _____ the flight at the last minute because it will be pricey.

The cheapest tickets that airlines offer are the _____ tickets.

The part of the airport where passengers wait before you board the plane is called a _____.

As I've got long legs I usually ask for an _____ seat on a long flight. I hate middle seats.

People ask for a _____ seat to enjoy the wonderful view of the city when the plane lands.

We are only scheduled to have about 45 minutes in Frankfurt, so I hope I don't miss our _____ flight.

To keep the passengers entertained there are _____ magazines and movies available.

The opposite of smooth flight is _____ flight.

_____ flights tend to be more expensive than international flights.

Passengers are asked to _____ their seat belt before take-off and before landing.

Most airlines require that you put a luggage _____ on your bag before you check it.

Your ticket to board the plane is a boarding _____.

The opposite of to board the plane is to _____ the plane.

A _____ flight is a flight with a stop in the middle. Sometimes, this will mean staying on the aircraft while it lands to drop off and pick up passengers. Other times, it will mean you have to get off the plane and board a new one at the airport.

The part of the airport where you pick up your checked luggage is called _____.

The section of the airport where you declare any new items you're bringing into a country is called _____.

A customs officer asks you if you have something to _____.

An _____ officer is a person who checks your visa and passport when you go into a country.

The _____ screen is a screen which shows the status of flights. It lists flights as on-time, delayed, or cancelled.

Tiredness experienced by travellers when they travel from one time zone to another is called _____.

Each airline sets their own baggage _____, with restrictions on size, weight and amount of pieces for both checked luggage and hand luggage.