Grammar

Present perfect with ever and never

Examples:

I've been to El Chaltén three times.

We've never seen a condor.

She's had a wonderful experience.

He hasn't climbed the Fitz Roy mountain.

Have you ever ridden a horse? Yes, I have.

No, I haven't.

Circle the correct options.

1) The present perfect refers to a present action / past experience.

2) We know / don't know exactly when the action or experience happened.

3) To form the present perfect we use have or has + a verb in the past / past participle.

4) The past participle of regular verbs ends / doesn't end in -ed.

5) The past participle of irregular verbs ends in -ed / takes different forms.
