

The Growth of Slavery page 417

1. What are two effects of the invention of the cotton gin?

- a. _____
b. _____

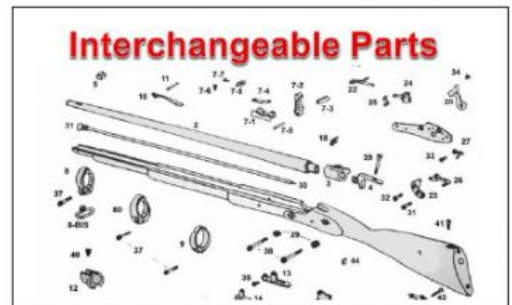

The Industrial Revolution Begins pages 378

1. At first, most people were _____.
2. Everything that people needed like cloth, furniture, or tools were made _____.
3. Because of new kinds of transportation and manufacturing goods like cloth began to be made in _____.
4. The changes in manufacturing and transportation is called The _____.
5. What replaced the old hand-powered spinning wheel or the spinning ginny?

6. Who opened the first cotton-spinning mill in the U.S.? _____
7. What powered the machines in the mill? _____
8. What had to be removed before the cotton was ready to be spun? _____
9. Who invented the cotton gin? _____
10. How did this invention impact or effect have on cotton? _____

11. At first all guns were made by _____.
12. The government wanted to buy 10,000 _____.
13. _____ invented a way that machines could make parts exactly the same size and shape called _____.

14. If one part broke, a new part could _____ it.
15. _____ created a way for many guns to be made at once.
16. _____ is when each worker makes only a part of the gun over and over.
17. Instead of making one gun at a time, many were made increasing the number produced or _____.