___ I like _____ films in English with Polish subtitles. That helps me to learn new words. Last year, I went on a school trip to England with my class. It was great! I stayed with an English family – they were very friendly and kind. They helped me a lot with my English.

___ Now I am studying English at _____. We study a lot of grammar and it is much more difficult than at primary school. The lessons are still fun and I'm learning a lot. I like speaking and reading English, but I'm not so good at _____ and writing. Sometimes our teacher gives us tests and I usually do OK.

___ I started learning English when I was at _____. I was eight years old. We learnt a lot of vocabulary, but we didn't study a lot of _____ – just the present simple. We sang songs and played games to make it fun. I loved my English lessons! _____ was really kind, too.

___ My name is Sebastian Kosowski and I'm 15 years old. I'm Polish and my _____ is Polish. Apart from Polish, I can speak English and German.

___ I like learning a language by talking to native _____ and listening to real English on TV or on the radio. It's the best way to learn quickly and speak naturally. I hope I can live and work in England one day. That's definitely the best way to learn a _____!

___ Outside school, I try to speak English _____ possible, but it's not easy because no one in my family can speak it. I have an English friend who I met on holiday last summer. We send each other emails almost every week. He likes all the same things as I do like football and films.
