

My Day Off

Don't you love day offs? They are like small pauses in our daily routines. They're the opportunity we need to disconnect and rest. Yesterday was a day off... What did you do? Write 3 or 4 FULL SENTENCES below.

You will listen to a woman describing her day off. Tick the activities you hear.

Listen to the next part. Select TRUE or FALSE.

1. She drove to work.	True	False
2. The bus was too full.	True	False
3. She worked for five hours.	True	False
4. She checked some e-mails.	True	False
5. She talked to her boss.	True	False

Listen to the last part. Number the actions in the correct order. There's an action she didn't do. Cross it out.

- () She watched a movie.
- () She exercised for an hour.
- () She cleaned up the kitchen.
- () She went home.
- () She cooked dinner.
- () She walked to the gym.
- () She showered.
- () She chatted with her roommate.