"What's on this afternoon?" Sonia's father asked tiredly.

"Let's see... I think we could eat tacos or some sushi. I love pizza, too!"

Sonia's father gave a deep sigh.

"Look, Sonia, on a single day I have drunk and eaten food from all over the world. In the morning, I had a cup of tea and ate some cereals. The tea leaves came from India and the cereals from the USA.

When I got back to the office, I bought a cup of coffee from the canteen. It happens that the coffee beans were from Brazil."

"At lunch, I went to a Peruvian restaurant with some of my colleagues. Then, I bought a bottle of mineral water at the store. When I read the label on the bottle, I realized it was from Argentina", Sonia's father went on talking about his day.

"What's wrong with that? Why are you so upset?", Sonia asked.

"Because, after such a day, I only wanted to come home and enjoy a good portion of a typical Chilean dish, but my adorable daughter says she would be delighted to eat tacos or some sushi!"
