

TRADITIONAL SLOVENE BREAKFAST

1. Read the text about the traditional Slovene breakfast and answer the following questions. You can find the text by clicking on the following link:

1. When did the Traditional Slovene breakfast project start?
2. Which food did Slovene schools serve for breakfast?
3. What does Slovenian Food Day promote?
4. Why is locally produced food important?
5. When do Slovene schools serve the traditional Slovene breakfast?
6. What does the traditional Slovene breakfast consist of?
7. What was the main aim of the campaign?

2. With the help of the dictionary translate the following words from English into Slovenian. You can find the dictionary here:

encourage:

launch:

evolve:

prominent:

beekeeper:

expand:

awareness:

3. Complete the text with the missing word from the box! There are three words too many!

beekeepers	libraries	kindergartens	exercise	habits
locally	healthy	honey	Friday	lifestyle
		sausages		short

Slovenians know that healthy, locally-produced food is important for living a long and 1_____ life. An example of recent efforts in this direction is the Traditional Slovenian Breakfast campaign.

For a while now, parents no longer need to look at their child's menu on the third 2_____ of November – like every year, 3_____ and schools will be serving a traditional Slovenian breakfast. Teachers generally use this day to teach children about the work of farmers and 4_____ and about the importance of eating healthy food. The campaign was introduced in 2011. The breakfast consists of bread, butter, 5_____, milk and an apple. The purpose of the project is to educate school children about the importance of breakfast in our eating 6_____, on the importance and advantages of 7_____ produced Slovenian food. It is also essential to teach young people about the importance of a healthy 8_____, including the importance of 9_____ and sports.

