

1) Match the pictures with the problems:

being homeless

depression

family problems

bullying

2) Match the words to their meaning

confidential	terrorising
bully	offering help
shelter	private
further	collect money
volunteer	extra
fundraise	protection/somewhere to live

3) Listen to the text and find if the sentences are T or F.

- 1) Childline is a free, 24-hour confidential helpline for children and young people in the USA.-
- 2) Its trained counsellors advise adults with different problems every day.-
- 3) There can be bullying, family problems, a problem of finding a shelter or just talking to those who feel alone.-
- 4) Depression is the most common problem that children call Childline about.-
- 5) Everybody can help by making a donation or even volunteering as a childline counsellor.-

4) Watch the video and answer the questions

- 1) Who was Zoe cyberbullied by?
- 2) How did she feel?
- 3) Did she tell anyone about it?
- 4) Where did she call for help?

