When my sister a little child, she many things. One day she into my room; she her small bicycle with her, too. Then she riding it in the small space between my desk and my bed. I very angry, but I did nothing to stop her because my parents would scold me. So I to be silent and go on with my lessons. Lucky me, some minutes later she her finger on one of my broken toys and she got out of the room crying.

Some years later my parents my sister a new, bigger bicycle; so she cycled only in the garden and my room was safe. For me they a puppy, because I loved pets. They also a small house for it in the garden.
