LISTEN AND READ: Listen to and read the article about Rosalinda and Felix.

Rosalinda and Felix are two hard-working people. Their jobs are quite different now because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Anticuchos

Rosalinda: A change of strategy
Rosalinda (Rosi) Velásquez

"CHANGE IS THE ONLY WAY TO SURVIVE"
Do you remember Rosi? During the lockdown her job changed a lot. She still sells anticuchos, but now she works at home in Villa María del Triunfo.

Mother and son

Her son, Martín, helps Rosalinda. Martín goes shopping for food at the local market every morning. He worries about his mom because she is over 60 years old. Usually, customers get the food to go. Sometimes, Martín delivers the food too, but he walks. At the end of the day, Martín washes the dishes.

Rosalinda is famous

Rosalinda gets up at 5:00 a.m. every day. She washes all the food and utensils very well. Then, she mixes the ingredients for the anticuchos. She boils the potatoes, corn and sweetpotatoes. Finally, she makes the rocoto sauce. Rosalinda is famous in Lima. People from different towns go to Rosalinda's house and buy her delicious anticuchos. She finishes her day at 10.00pm.

Rosalinda says, "Change is the only way to survive."

Restaurant

Felix: A new job
Félix Soto

Do you remember Felix? During the lockdown his job changed a lot. He still works in the restaurant, but now he delivers food to people on his bike.

A job and a hobby

Felix gets up at 6:00 a.m. every day. When Felix delivers the food, he washes his hands, wears a mask, disinfects his bike and delivers the food all over the city. Felix loves riding his bike, but he hates the traffic in Lima. Now, he likes riding his bike in his free time too. He fixes his bike every time it has a problem.

Felix says, "The world is changing and my job is changing, too."

"THE WORLD IS CHANGING AND MY JOB IS CHANGING, TOO"
