

Modals: obligations, prohibition, advice.

Name: _____ class: 9th Grade

Q1: Fill in the blanks with the suitable modal:

Should (ought to) - must - mustn't - have to - don't
(doesn't) have to - had to - need to - needn't

1. I _____ practice more exercises in order to get high marks.
2. You _____ have a driving license to be able to drive a car.
3. We _____ wake up early for school. It starts at 7:30 a.m.
4. He _____ smoke here. It's not allowed.
5. You _____ to buy meat. We already have some.
6. You _____ go and see a doctor.
7. She _____ read this article. It helps her with her research.

Q2: Choose the correct answer:

1. "We have to send this e-mail to the boss before 6 p.m." This sentence expresses:
 - a. An obligation comes from the speaker.
 - b. A recommendation.
 - c. An obligation comes from the outside.
2. "you needn't to wash this jacket. It's clean." This sentence expresses:
 - a. An advice
 - b. A prohibition
 - c. A choice (it's up to you to do it or not)
3. Which sentence expresses a recommendation:
 - a. "We must do more exercises to get fit"
 - b. "You don't have to cook now; we are not hungry".
 - c. "You should buy iPhone, it's a very high-quality mobile phone.
4. "University rules are so strict, We _____ attend lectures on time".
 - a. must
 - b. have to
 - c. should

Q3: Rewrite the sentences with the suitable modals:

1. It would be a good idea to go to the gym.

2. It is not necessary to buy new clothes this month, you already have too many new clothes you didn't wear.

3. Don't make a noise during listening exams.

4. It is necessary to learn English if you want to travel to USA.

5. It is necessary to revise equations to pass mathematics assessment.
