

Let's practice vocabulary for the Final Exam!

Choose the best options to complete the sentences below:

- 1- The lady did not understand how he could treat his own flesh and blood by and large that way?
- 2- Do you fall asleep as soon as your head hits the pillow, or do you now and again toss and turn for hours before dropping off?
- 3- The rescuers brought the climbers back up and down safe and sound.
- 4- She's a top-level brand-new manager at a law firm.
- 5- The president made some last-minute like-minded changes to his busy schedule.
- 6- Water is precious, so let's reserve conserve it.
- 7- The entrepreneur's recent book helped to shed light long term on environmental issues.
- 8- The scientist discovered a cure for that disease! What a breakthrough prospective for science!
- 9- We invited the rich family for eight o'clock but they showed off showed up around nine thirty!
- 10- You should never have stuck your nose stuck your fingers in what doesn't concern you! How am I going to explain things to the young mistress?
- 11- The whole arena was counting down turning into the seconds until he appeared on stage with the band for an unforgettable night!
- 12- Money management Market research indicates that people are now more willing to buy gas-fueled cars.
- 13- There seems to be a/an absence shortage of trained mechanics, so in the absence shortage of more suitable candidates, Mr. Jade was offered the position.
- 14- Advertisers use eye-catching outdated photographs to promote companies' products.
- 15- The rich man takes pride takes turn in his talented children.
- 16- The company is logging launching its new smartphone next week.
- 17- There are many noteworthy exclusive advances in medical research.
- 18- The most beautiful people in the world may be extremely rich or kind-hearted poverty-stricken.
- 19- It's of flthy paramount importance that no one finds out about the mistake we made.
- 20- I have bittersweet thrilling memories of my vacation. I had a great time but I lost my I-phone.

