PHRASAL VERBS: BREAK

DOWN: become very upset or emotional stop working properly (machines)

OPEN: open something by force

OUT: when something (often dangerous) suddenly begins escape from a situation or a place

BREAK

IN ON: interrupt a conversation

INTO: enter a place illegally

THROUGH: force yourself through something that is holding you back.

UP : when a business or a personal relationship ends.
divide something into smaller pieces

Complete with the correct form of the verbs listed above

1 If the pill is too big for you to swallow you can ..... it..... .

2 When Angela heard the news, she ..... and cried.

3 I got home and saw that the thieves .....my flat: it was a terrible mess!

4 I lost the key of my front door and I had to .....it..... .

5 The protesters ..... the barriers .

6 Sorry to .....your talk, I thought you had finished by now.

7 Helen's car ..... on her way home last night.

8 Liz and Stan surprised all their friends by..... after so many years together.

9 When the fire started, all the people managed to .....unhurt.

10 I really hope I will never see a war..... .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS