

Emotions

Fill the gaps with the appropriate word disappointed, embarrassed, frightened, upset, suspicious, delighted, proud, bored, surprised, cross

- 1, I am very of rats and snakes.
- 2, When Mary got bad marks on her final tests she felt extremelybecause she had studied a lot.
- 3, The detective was of the old woman, he thought that she was the murderer.
- 4, Sam won the running race, and his mum was so of him.
- 5, I'm really, because my dog ran away last week, I miss him a lot.
- 6, Little Sue was absolutely when she opened her birthday present and found a dollhouse.
- 7, Mum, why are you with me? I didn't break the window!
- 8, The students were really at the lesson and they fell asleep.
- 9, The audience was when the magician cut his assistant in half.
- 10, The old man was because his trousers fell off in the shop. Everybody laughed at him.