

1 Correct the underlined mistakes in the sentences.

- 1 Gloria is so insensitive She's always hurting people's emotions. _____
- 2 I heard them talking around Sam's back about his girlfriend. _____
- 3 Ben felt out with his sister over who could choose what to watch on TV.
_____
- 4 My best friend and I always look out after each other when we go out.
_____
- 5 Yvette spilt up with Yuri. Apparently, he's very upset about it. _____
- 6 Nina argues with her sister a lot, but they always make off afterwards.
_____
- 7 I let my friend around by telling her ex-boyfriend one of her deepest secrets.
_____
- 8 We always bank each other up when we get in trouble at school. _____

Dependent prepositions

2 Complete the dialogue with prepositions.

M Do you belong (1) _____ a sports club, Sophie?

S Yes, I do, Mark. I wanted to do something different (2) _____ the normal gym activities, so I joined a fit box group.

M What's 'fit box'?

S It's like boxing, but you focus on fitness. It makes you more aware (3) _____ your body.

M It's not the same (4) _____ karate, is it?

S Well, you don't actually fight each other. It's good because there is less impact (5) _____ your knees than with other cardio activities.

M Sounds good!

S Yes, I've only been going for a month, but my physiotherapist says he's already seen 'a decrease (6) _____ body fat'.

M He said that? Well done!