

Future

be + verb -ing + time adverb

A - Turn the sentences into the future. Follow the example.

Example:

I study every day.

I'm studying tomorrow.

1. We watch television every evening. _____
2. She reads the papers every day. _____
3. he does gymnastics once a week. _____
4. She plays video games every morning. _____
5. They take the rubbish out every night. _____
6. We go fishing with them every week. _____
7. She phones her boyfriend every morning. _____
8. I clean my bedroom every morning. _____
9. They have a party every week. _____

B – Answer the questions. Follow the example.

Example:

Are you studying tonight? (attend a concert)

No, I'm attending a concert.

1. Are you having lunch now? (have/ a rest)

2. Are you working today? ((saty / in bed / all day)

3. Is he buying a new pair of shoes? (buy / a pair of roller skates)

4. Are they washing the car tomorrow morning? (mend / the bicycle)

5. Are they cooking dinner? (go/ to a pizza restaurant)

6. Is she writing on the board? (write / in the exercise book)

7. Are they wearing an anorak? (wear / a rain coat)

8. Are they visiting the exhibition? (have / a barbecue/ in their garden)
