A Big Surprise

Lalitha came from the school. She put her school bag in the cupboard.

Her mother was busy in the kitchen. Lalitha searched for her father.

‘Amma, where is Nanna?’ she asked her mother. ‘In the garden,’ replied her mother.

Lalitha ran to the garden. ‘Oh! Nanna, you are here.’

‘Yes dear come on!’ ‘Nanna, why are you digging the soil?’

‘I want to sow some seeds,’ replied her father. ‘Great! What seeds will you sow now?’

‘Um... brinjal, lady’s finger, beans, many other seeds’ ‘Oh! Nanna, I like tomatoes.

Do you have tomato seeds also?’ ‘Yes, I know you like tomatoes. So I’ve brought them more.’

‘Nanna, Nanna, please give me tomato seeds, I’ll sow them.’ ‘Sure, why not?’

‘But Nanna, when will tomatoes grow?’ asked Lalitha. ‘Wait, wait! First sow tomato seeds here.’

‘Then!’ said Lalitha. ‘Pour water regularly.’

‘Then!’ ‘The seeds will grow into plants.’

‘Next!’ ‘In a few months you’ll see many tomatoes in our garden.’

‘Wonderful, Nanna! Then I’ll have tomato curry, tomato pickle, tomato soup...’ clapped Lalitha.
