

If—

BY RUDYARD KIPLING

('Brother Square-Toes'—Rewards and Fairies)

If you can ■■■ your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust ■■■ when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their ■■■ too;
If you can ■■■ and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to ■■■,
And yet don't ■■■ too good, nor talk too wise:
