The Three Little Pigs

Once upon a time, a long time ago, there lived three little brother pigs in their mother's house in the deep Redwood Forest. When it was time for the brothers to leave their mother's house to make their way in the big world, they all left together. The first Little Pig decided to make his house out of straw because it was easy and quick. So he build himself a straw house and then he began to play his flute and dance around. The second Little Pig decided to make his house of sticks because there were so many laying around and it would be easy and quick. When his house was built, he began to play his drums while his brother pig continued to play the flute and they both danced around. The third Little Pig decided to make his home of brick even if it took a long time to make the brick and then build the house. The third Little Pig knew a brick house would stand up against bad weather and would keep things out than shouldn't be in the house. When after a long time he finished his house, he went to work to cut fire wood and plant a garden.

One day a big bad wolf decided he was hungry and he wanted to have a little pig for his dinner. He went to the first Little Pig's house and knocked on the door. He said," Little Pig, Little Pig, let me in". The Little Pig said, "Not by the hair of my chin, will I let you in." So the wolf said, "I'll huff and puff and blow your house down." So the wolf huffed and puffed and blew the straw house down. Well, the Little Pig ran to his brother pig's house and both the first and second Little Pigs were in the stick house when the Bid Bad Wolf came to them. The Wolf said, "Little Pigs, Little Pigs, let me in." The Little Pigs said, "Not by the hair of our chin will we let you in." So the Big Bad Wolf said, "I'll huff and puff and blow your house down." So the Big Bad Wolf blew the house down. Well now, the two Little Pigs, ran to their brother's house and then all three Little Pigs were in the hardworking brother's house. The Big Bad Wolf came to the door of the brick house and said, "Little Pigs, Little Pigs, let me in." The three Little Pigs said, "Not by the hair of our chins, will we let you in." So the Big Bad Wolf huffed and puffed, but could not blow the house down. The Big Bad Wolf went up to the roof-top and went down the chimney. But the third Little Pig was very hardworking and had built a fire and put a large tub of water in the fireplace. So the Big Bad Wolf landed in the hot water and the three Little Pigs had wolf stew for dinner instead of the Big Bad Wolf having a Little Pig dinner.
