Reading

Read the passage and answer the following questions.

For many years, David has been driving to work and back every weekday. Every morning, on his way to work, especially during the rush hour, he always faces traffic jams. The situation is even worse in the evening when he drives home. All the traffic comes to a halt whenever there is an accident or a car has broken down and blocks an entire lane. In the winter, emergency paramedics and the police will spend many hours to clear the road if there are accidents. When David is stuck in a heavy traffic jam, he listens to music on the radio to calm his nerves. His boss and his wife know that if he is late, he is probably stuck in traffic.
